

Blowholes and Flukes game!

Head = Blowholes (hands on head), Tails = Flukes (hands on bottom)

- Everyone puts money in to play the game.
- Someone flips a coin and people have to put their hands on their heads (blowholes) or their bottoms (flukes).
- If the coin is heads then all the people with hands on their bottoms (flukes) sit down, if the coin is tails all the people with hands on their heads (blowholes) sit down.
- Carry on until there are only two people left playing and the winner is the last one standing.

The winner can either have a portion of the money everyone put in to play the game, and the rest donated to WDCS, or they can win a prize provided by you and all the money can be donated to WDCS!
